A real blues Hanon book would be blues licks and scales in multiple keys. It would have left hand /right hand rythm patterns on top of each other in multiple keys. It would be what you expect - Hanon, but for blues. THAT would be a great book. This is a bunch of short blues compositions. It is NOT a hanon, or even a technique book.

Blues Hanon By Peter Deneff - Instructional Book Sheet ...

Rote exercises encourage pianists to keep moving without taking necessary pauses. This leads to tension and injury. In addition to these reasons, I offer one more: Hanon exercises are simply not musical. As musicians, we train the ear as much as - or more than - we train the hands. A side-effect of unmusical exercises is that we stop listening.

This is why Hanon exercises are a waste of time (and ...
