There's no interview to become a hunter—mercenary drifters who deal with monsters and dark magic the average person can't handle. Those who have it in their blood show up when the bounty is posted and claim the rewards only when the job is done. Mason Kane couldn't imagine any other life for himself...until his last job, one which left him alone and injured beyond natural help. Lost, he moved to the city to drink away his retirement and wallow until his eventual death. That is, until an enigmatic millionaire approaches him with a job offer—someone, somewhere is practicing one of the forbidden arts, devilurgy, and only Mason can stop them. What's more, the stranger is willing to offer the ultimate reward: a cure. With the help of a handsome and charming magician, Toma Shigomina, Mason has to learn not only who's selling the mysterious sigils, but how—and why. But, when it comes to dark magic, nothing is as it seems. Will Mason be able to solve the mystery and keep the people he cares about safe? And what, exactly, are his new employer's motivations?
