The city and the Pillar (1948) is a short gay-themed novel published over 70 years ago (!) and I absolutely loved it. I identified more with it than with all these contemporary super-LGBT+ books coming out by the dozens and I think that, apart from the great author's superb non-politically correct writing, it has to do with the credible characters and plot.

Question: "Why was Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt?" Answer: Genesis 19 tells the story of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. Lot, Abraham's nephew, lived in Sodom with his family. His daughters were engaged to local men. Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom, the area where financial and judicial transactions took place, when two angels came into town.
