Question Reality is an arduous journey of re-organization of the mind of an anorexic, academic female in fight for her own physical and mental survival. In the process, she re-invents the wheel of ecology and science, in consideration of human interactions with the environment. Written in a synergistic, humorous dialogue between two graduate students--Terra the Biogeek and Buz the Geobum--who venture on a fictional road trip up the California Coastline. Part 1 of a two-part edition.

"Worlds Competing for Resources In the early twenty-first century, the Orion Program was cancelled and NASA was disbanded in favor of SUN: a new international space exploration organization whose goal was to colonize Mars. They created a new space-worthy craft and a team of three astronauts became the first humans walk on the surface of the planet. During their exploration, they discovered a mysterious pink crystal with ""unlimited"" energy potential. When every country switched from natural resources to the mysterious Martian crystals, Earth was transformed in a new era of economic prosperity and technological advancement. However, when it was discovered that the Martian crystals only contained a limited amount of energy, Earth sent space explorers to the deepest uncharted regions of space in search of more crystals. In their search, they discovered a humanoid race that was also in need of new sources of energy. A dispute over the crystals led to violence. The violence led to WAR!"

Detective Vikram is delineated as an established sleuth with a brilliant track record. One day during travel, he is kept under spell by a phantom who narrates to him the twenty five cases of crime. Detective Vikram too solves all the investigation puzzles except the twenty-fifth case and wins his freedom from the spell of the phantom. This book has taken nearly four years to complete. The stories are based on the bizarre events that are taking place the world over at all strata of society. They are intended to entertain and, at the same time, make the readers look in a different way at the results of each investigation. They can at least use the knowledge gained from the case studies for guarding against the shockingly evil intentions of some people who appear good and act very close to them in everyday life. Call it ripping the mask, reading between the lines or moving a few steps forward, reading the words behind the eyes of the person with whom we communicate, whatever! The stories unveil true human nature, good and bad, for the benefit of the readers. The case studies or stories, as they can be called, are entirely fictitious and the characters are just based on the author's imagination. They do not refer to any real life episode or a person or persons, living or dead.

The first systematic survey of the conceptual history of basic logical terminology in ancient China.

Humans being the most intelligent species and having lived on Earth for thousands of years, we are yet nowhere near to a life of peace, love, joy and harmony. This book contains a story of a young man, Tom, who had a fourth conversation with Guru Harry. This is a continuation of their first three conversations which are contained in the books "Wisdom on How to Live Life" and "Wisdom on How to Live Life (Book 2)" Guru Harry epitomizes someone from a spiritual society who offers a way of living which can lead to peace, love, joy and harmony. Through this fourth conversation, Tom learnt that (1) why we should live our lives according to our wishes, (2) why it is better to have morality than money, (3) why somebody who did ten good deeds is better than another who did one hundred good deeds and one bad deed, (4) what is the negative response we need to prepare for when we do good, (5) why life is getting harder and harder, (6) why it is better to solve problems with spiritual solutions than physical solutions, (7) why there is so much fear on Earth, (8) why it is better to believe that there is no heaven, (9) why masters do not directly bring heaven to Earth, and (10) how to build a loving society.
