Automobiles haven't been around that long, but in their short history several types of cars stand out to the masses. Many people in the United States didn't own a car until Henry Ford produced the Model T for the purpose of being a car the average American could afford. This set follows the history of some of the most iconic automobile makes and models, including Alfa Romeos and Mustangs. It encourages readers to think critically about how cars, an integral piece of everyday life, have come to shape the world. Features include: Fact boxes and sidebars provide readers with additional information about these cars' history that some people may not know. Timelines show the development of these cars throughout history. Follows the C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standards of the National Council for the Social Studies.

Moving to a new Amish settlement in small-town Colorado was a brave new start for independent-minded quiltmaker Esther Kiem. But helping her reckless relative will really put her special matchmaking skills to the test . . . Mischievous and rebellious, young Ben Kiem is making the wrong kind of name for himself throughout the town of Byler. And even though his sister-in-law, Esther, somehow coaxes him into keeping company with sensible Linda Eicher, Ben can't see anything they have in common. Or that he could ever be good enough for someone like her. But Linda's down-to-earth nature and unexpected understanding have Ben trying his best to be better, no matter how challenging . . . Linda couldn't be more surprised when Ben turns out to be caring and helpful, despite his rowdy pranks and bad-news friends. And falling in love with him suddenly seems just right. But when a heartbreaking misunderstanding comes between them, both she and Ben must risk enough to trust, stitch the pieces back together—and dare a forever precious happiness. Praise for Jennifer Beckstrand and Abraham
