I have been traveling the world full-time for the past couple of years and collected memories most people just dream of. I could tell you about the time when I accidentally bought a donkey in the Sahara while living in a Berber tent all on my very own deep inside the desert, when I hitchhiked in the warzone of Ukraine, when I camped in a Maasai village or when I landed in the world's biggest ladyboy stripper bar in Bangkok, or how I got my tattoo on the streets at night a day after. Or about the time when the electricity went down and I got trapped inside the Cheops pyramid in Cairo. I could tell you how I ended up working on Hollywood movie sets in London, how I spent weeks with always naked hippies up in the Swiss mountains, how I climbed waterfalls, how I swam with wild dolphins in the Indian Ocean or I could also tell the story where I got almost arrested in Israel and in Italy. I could tell you so much about my travels but this book is not about me, it is about you... In this Short Budget Backpacker's Guide, travelers will learn the secrets of travel hacking. How To Save Your Money, How To Afford Traveling And How To Get Paid For It, How To Find The Cheapest Flights And Accommodation, Best Credit Cards For Traveling, The Ultimate Packing List, Safety On The Road, Why You Should Travel Solo, How To Find A Travel Partner, Best Travel Apps, What To Know About Getting A Visa

*UPDATED 2017 EDITION* New York Times bestseller! No money? No problem. You can start packing your bags for that trip you've been dreaming a lifetime about. For more than half a decade, Matt Kepnes (aka Nomadic Matt) has been showing readers of his enormously popular travel blog that traveling isn't expensive and that it's affordable to all. He proves that as long as you think out of the box and travel like locals, your trip doesn't have to break your bank, nor do you need to give up luxury. How to Travel the World on $50 a Day reveals Nomadic Matt's tips, tricks, and secrets to comfortable budget travel based on his experience traveling the world without giving up the sushi meals and comfortable beds he enjoys. Offering a blend of advice ranging from travel hacking to smart banking, you'll learn how to: • Avoid paying bank fees anywhere in the world • Earn thousands of free frequent flyer points • Find discount travel cards that can save on hostels, tours, and transportation • Get cheap (or free) plane tickets Whether it's a two-week, two-month, or two-year trip, Nomadic Matt shows you how to stretch your money further so you can travel cheaper, smarter, and longer.

Most of you have paid full price for airline tickets and hotel rooms. You've spent hundreds, if not thousands of dollars to sit in an uncomfortable seat and stay in a mediocre hotel. Now you won't have to do that anymore. Welcome to the world of travel hacking, where we will teach you how to eliminate your travel expenses, and travel the world for pennies on the dollar. We will show you that you can get an international flight for less money than going out to dinner in your home town.This book is for people who want to save money on travel. It's also for people who have tried to learn about this topic from the many blogs and websites on the subject, and who have realized that the public information is extremely scattered and disorganized. This book is the consolidation of that information, combined with real-world examples and personal experiences of the author. This book is your structured, detailed, well-organized manual to help you learn the art of travel hacking from the very beginning.After you read this book, you no longer will be asking yourself "Why do I need to spend so much money to travel?" Rather, you will be asking yourself "Where am I going next?"

Part memoir and part philosophical look at why we travel, filled with stories of Matt Kepnes' adventures abroad, an exploration of wanderlust and what it truly means to be a nomad. "Matt is possibly the most well-traveled person I know...His knowledge and passion for understanding the world is unrivaled, and never fails to amaze me." -Mark Manson, New York Times bestselling author of The Subtle Art of Not Giving a F*ck Ten Years a Nomad is New York Times bestselling author Matt Kepnes' poignant exploration of wanderlust and what it truly means to be a nomad. Part travel memoir and part philosophical look at why we travel, it is filled with aspirational stories of Kepnes' many adventures. New York Times bestselling author of How to Travel the World on $50 a Day, Matthew Kepnes knows what it feels like to get the travel bug. After meeting some travelers on a trip to Thailand in 2005, he realized that living life meant more than simply meeting society's traditional milestones, such as buying a car, paying a mortgage, and moving up the career ladder. Inspired by them, he set off for a year-long trip around the world before he started his career. He finally came home after ten years. Over 500,000 miles, 1,000 hostels, and 90 different countries later, Matt has compiled his favorite stories, experiences, and insights into this travel manifesto. Filled with the color and perspective that only hindsight and self-reflection can offer, these stories get to the real questions at the heart of wanderlust. Travel questions that transcend the basic "how-to," and plumb the depths of what drives us to travel - and what extended travel around the world can teach us about life, ourselves, and our place in the world. Ten Years a Nomad is for travel junkies, the travel-curious, and anyone interested in what you can learn about the world when you don't have a cable bill for a decade or spend a month not wearing shoes living on the beach in Thailand.
