The Marsh Arabs

The Marsh Arabs (Arabic: رابوألأا بـرع ‘Arab al-Ahwār “Arabs of the Marshlands”), also referred to as the Ma’dān (Arabic: نـارـعـمـ "dweller in the plains") or shroog (Arabic: گـوريش , "those from the east")—the latter two often considered derogatory in the present day—are inhabitants of the Tigris-Euphrates marshlands in the south of Iraq as well as in the Hawizeh Marshes straddling the Iraq and Iran border.

Marsh Arabs - Wikipedia

The Marsh Arabs is a piece of travel writing describing Wilfred Thesiger's seven years living among the Marshmen of southern Iraq. It takes place during the 1950's, but feels much older. Thesiger was one of the last great British adventurers, and the world he recorded in this book has mostly vanished.
